CORRECTING MISPLACED MODIFIERS

SUMMARY

A modifier describes a word. A misplaced modifier sits too far from the word it describes and can change the meaning. Put it next to its target.

SEMANTIC MAP

EXAMPLES

- Unclear: Ella saw a puppy wearing her school uniform.
- Clear: Wearing her school uniform, Ella saw a puppy.
- Only Amir → person: Only Amir painted the sign.
- Only the sign → object: Amir painted only the sign.

EXERCISES

1. Fix: I photographed a squirrel riding my bicycle. (I was riding.)

   _____

2. Fix: We bought a desk from a woman with wooden legs. (The desk has wooden legs.)

   _____

3. Fix: Covered in stickers, Mia carried the folder. (The folder has stickers.)

   _____

CHALLENGE

Write a clear sentence with only and explain what only limits.

_____

_____